When you think of the classic romance of the Canadian Rockies, you probably think of Lake Louise. Turquoise waters, towering glaciers, and mountains rising steeply from valleys. Originally built as a railroad chalet in 1890, Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise still stands on the edge of this pristine wilderness. Stay in the heart of Banff, Canada's first national park and a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

From a home base for outdoor enthusiasts and climbers over 100 years ago to a luxury alpine resort with year-round fun, Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise is an iconic 539-room hotel in Banff National Park, offering stunning views of Lake Louise and the Canadian Rocky Mountains that surround us. As well as being elegant and graceful, we also offer alpine tours, world-class skiing, beautiful hiking and canoeing activities, children's camps, a luxurious spa and exceptional dining experiences. We are widely known not only for our beauty and stunning surroundings, but also for our world-renowned events and exciting wellness retreats. Whether you would like to visit us, work with us, introduce yourself to us or just learn more, we would love to get to know us a little better.
